MACKMYRA SPECIAL:06

Mackmyra Special is a drink for special occasions and special people. For you who have found the Swedish malt whisky and wants to experience its nuances. For you who live life less ordinary.

Mackmyra Special:06 is a fresh Swedish malt whisky with a floral and fruity character. Our Elegant recipe have been matured on several different cask types of 30 to 200 litres, out on the island Fjäderholmarna in the Swedish archipelago.

The nose is fruity and floral with aromas of heather, honey, ripe pears and dried apricots. A softly roasted cask character with notes of butterscotch and nuts with a delicate spicy oakiness. The palate is fruity and soft. The aftertaste is fresh and softly oaky, with light hints of butterscotch.

Mackmyra Whisky is the new generation of Swedish whisky, made in our own way, using Swedish ingredients without additives. Small casks of 30 and 100 liters create an intense maturation while the Swedish oak contributes prominent spice as we store our whisky in a constant temperature, 50 meters deep into the ground in the Bodås mine.
