MACKMYRA SPECIAL:09

Mackmyra Special is a drink for special occasions and special people. For you who have found the Swedish malt whisky and wants to experience its nuances. For you who live life less ordinary.

Mackmyra Special:09 is an elegant Swedish malt whisky with intense berry and fruity notes, with finish from casks that have previously stored wine made from wild raspberries. The base is Mackmyra's Elegant recipe which have been put in casks between 2003 and 2006 and stored deep down in the Bodås mine.

The nose is berry and spicy with a complex palette of fruity citrus aromas, prominent sweet raspberry, ripe pears as well as spicy cask notes such as sandalwood, cedar wood, vanilla and toast. The palate is fruity, berry and spicy with raspberry, citrus, pear and roasted oak. The aftertaste is long with berries and prominent spice.

Mackmyra Whisky is the new generation of Swedish whisky, made in our own way, using Swedish ingredients without additives. Small casks of 30 and 100 liters create an intense maturation while the Swedish oak contributes prominent spice as we store our whisky in a constant temperature, 50 meters deep into the ground in the Bodås mine.
